

Stylish and bustling, the ambiance at Capsouto Freres buzzes with an elegant flair.

Since 1980, Capsouto Freres has been family owned by 3 brothers, Jacques, Samuel and Albert. With the thought of a warm and classy bistro in mind, the restaurant was born and throughout these years has found its way into the heart of New Yorkers, and visitors from all over the world.

Its charm and appeal stem from the unique restaurant layout and the quiet atmosphere. Capsouto Freres fine wines and exciting menu provide the right amount of variety and harmony. Dine on eggs benedict, savory roast duck, or try one of their luscious signature soufflés for one. As a tribute to its spectacular soufflés, Capsouto Freres has affectionately been dubbed, “the soufflé sanctuary.”

Capsouto Freres captures the heart and soul of French cuisine.

They have won numerous awards from some exclusive publications including Sante Magazine, Wine Spectator, Wine Enthusiast, Zagat Survey and the 50 Most Popular, and have been visited by such famous personalities as Toni Morrison, Meryl Streep, Bruce Webber, Yo Yo Ma and Cindy Crawford to name a few.

Capsouto Freres is casual elegance at its best.

Capsouto Freres invites you to indulge in an adventure of love and life, and savor the fine cuisine and beautiful décor they have to offer.
