

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wedding Photography: Grasping A Whole New Perspective On The Passion Of Storytelling

April 13, 2005, Los Angeles, California – The rich tradition of wedding ceremonies can speak to us for years to come with timeless photos of all the precious moments of joy, celebration and love. These captured memories are simply priceless.

Greg Dearwood, of Dearwood Studios in Orange County, California knows just how priceless these cherished moments are and his passion for ensuring that every beautiful moment is savored forever is what makes his photography the epitome of elegance. “Your wedding day is the most magical day of your life. Friends... Family... A new life...., states Mr. Dearwood,” Your wedding photos should tell the story of your wedding moment by moment.”

It was on January 1st, 2005 that the beginnings of what would become an ever popular and rapidly growing photography business was formed during the beautiful wedding ceremony of Aleisha and Scott Harper. From that day forward, Greg Dearwood’s passion for photography went from just a hobby into a six-figure income in less than 18 months.

With his undeniable passion for the art, Greg’s mission is photography and telling the story through the images. Capturing every detail from romance to laughter is a necessity. Greg’s genuine professionalism and expertise goes above and beyond to ensure your memories will last forever with a series of unique traditional poses, rare candid moments, and romantic interludes during wedding ceremonies, receptions, and engagement photo sessions. His sensational skills as an artist, illustrator and animator for Disney and Dreamworks, also encourages and enhances his gift of photography.

MORE

CONT'D.

Dearwood Studios pride themselves in being not only the perfect photography studio for your wedding, but also in becoming a friend to their esteemed clients. Greg Dearwood says, "Clients become my friends and there's no stronger way of marketing than having my friends spreading the word about how passionate I am in photography."

The result you will find from the accomplished Dearwood Studios is both elegant and artistic, and will bring you a beautiful wedding photo essay for you to delight in and enjoy for years to come. Dearwood Studios... Unique...Visual...Romantic.

Media Contact: Greg Dearwood

1-877-xxx-xxxx

greg@dearwoodstudios.com