

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seattle's Very Own Relaxation Facility Gets A Makeover!

Why not give your special someone that perfect gift of pure relaxation this Valentines Day and beyond?

Seattle, WA – February 18th, 2006 - For 11 years, Seattle Tub and Tan has provided the finest relaxation tanning salon and hot tubing facility in the area. A whole lot of shaking has been going on at Tub and Tan. This great facility has gotten a makeover and has become a complete state of the art place to relax.

Throughout the past few months, the owners of Seattle Tub and Tan have worked diligently to provide the citizens of Seattle with an "ultra-modern relaxation getaway." With their re-opening scheduled for February 12th, 2006, this is the perfect spot for a romantic Valentines Day extravaganza.

Located at 8028 Southeast Main ST., Seattle Tub and Tan has one goal, "To take hot tubing by-the-hour to the next level." If you crave high end relaxation, you have to check out their 3 exciting new rooms.

MORE

CONT'D.

Adding many high tech features such as fireplaces, waterfalls, heated concrete floors, TV's, stereo sound dmx with 110 channels of music among others, you can be assured that when you visit Tub and Tan, you will be pampered and entertained.

Owner of Seattle Tub and Tan, Michael S. Parsons, states Seattle Tub and Tan is Seattle's ultra-modern relaxation getaway. It's a vacation in about an hour. You have the options to relax in a private indoor or outdoor setting with a complete spa suite. You can even enjoy the Washington rain while inside a full sized 104 degree spa. "With their commitment to their customers, Seattle Tub and Tan has fast become the perfect destination for pure relaxation.

Discover for yourself the amazing benefits that a few hours of time at Seattle Tub and Tan can do for you.

To learn more about how Seattle Tub and Tan please visit www.seattletubandtan.com or contact them at 800.261.8980 for more information

#